Attacked by a Mob

and beaten in a labor riot until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at Moseley's drug store.

Capt Wm. LeFils of the Jacksonville Rifles has resigned.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic and not as a drastic purge are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure headache, constipation, biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by W. B. Davis.

The South Florida Chautauqua will convene March 9th.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1 at W. B. Davis'.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY FOR LETTERS PATENT.

Under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, the undersigned hereby give notice that they will apply to the Honorable N. B. Broward, Governor of the State of Florida, at Tallahassee, Fla., on the 10th day of March, A. D. 1905, for letters patent, incorporating the Madison Cotton Ginning Company under the following proposed Articles of Incorporation.

Proposed Articles of Incorporation of "Madison Cotton Ginning Company."

We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a body politic and corporate under the laws of the State of Florida, and do hereby make, adopt, declare and subscribe the following as the Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be "MADISON COTTON GINNING COMPANY," and its principal place of business shall be located in the town of Madison, county of Madison, State of Florida.

ARTICLE II.

The general nature of the business to be conducted and transacted and purposes to be attained and carried out by this corporation are as follows: the ginning, baling, buying, selling and dealing in cotton generally; buying, selling and dealing in cotton seed; to do a general cotton business upon commission or otherwise; to do a general merchandise, warehouse, storage, commission and forwarding business; to manufacture, buy, sell or otherwise deal in real and personal property of any kind, in any manner desired; to subscribe for, purchase, secure, hold and dispose of stock, securities, shares and other obligations of other corporations; to lend or borrow money on note, bond or pledge, deed, mortgage or other obligations, with or without real or personal security, and to do all other acts incident to such a corporation.

ARTICLE III.

The amount of the Capital Stock of this corporation hereby organized shall be Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) divided into Two Hundred and forty (240) shares of the par value of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per share, to be paid for in lawful money of the United States, or property, labor or services at a just valuation to be fixed by the directors and upon such terms, and in such proportion of either as the said directors may determine, all of which capital stock shall be paid in before this corporation shall commence business.

ARTICLE IV.

The period for which this corporation shall exist shall be ninety-nine (99) years from the date of the issuance of the Letters Patent.

ARTICLE V.

The business of this corporation shall be conducted and managed by the following officers, to-wit: a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, who shall be elected for one year and shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected and qualified. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three (3) members and of not more than five (5) members, who shall be stockholders of this corporation, and shall, immediately after their election, select from their body the said officers who shall conduct and manage the business of this corporation. The office of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. The names of the officers who shall manage and conduct the business of this corporation until the first annual meeting of the stockholders shall be Brooks B. McCall, President, John Malloch, Vice President, and Joseph D. Taylor, Secretary and Treasurer, and the Board of Directors shall be Brooks B. McCall, Joseph D. Taylor and John Malloch. Said Board of Directors shall within 20 days after the date of the issuance of Letters Patent, or as soon thereafter as practicable, but within 90 days thereafter, shall hold a meeting, elect officers and make and prescribe By-Laws for the government of this corporation; and they and their successors in office, may from time to time, alter and amend, or repeal the same as, in their judgment the best interest of this corporation may require. The first annual meeting of the stockholders shall be on the 1st day of March, A. D. 1905, and the regular annual meetings thereafter shall be on the 2nd Tuesday in the month of May of each and every year, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of debt or liability to which this corporation can at any time subject itself shall be Fifty Thousand dollars ($50,000.00).

ARTICLE VII.

The names and residences of the incorporators of this corporation and the amount of the capital stock subscribed by each are as follows: Brooks B. McCall, Madison, Florida, 125 shares; Joseph D. Taylor, Savannah, Georgia, 100 shares; and John Malloch, Savannah, Georgia, 15 shares.
